This will be a great chance to get a large quantity of advertising at a mere nominal cost. The HERALD that week, will be read by not less than eight thousand readers, and will be full of entertaining miscellany and local news.

SIGNS OF PROMISE.

The cry of hard times so often heard during the last two or three years, is giving way to words of encouragement and good cheer. Material development is going on all around us, and at no time in the history of the State has there been so many miles of railroad under construction. Capitalists are attracted by the rich ores and dense forests, and all roads, there is certainly signs of promise visible to those who are willing to see. A State conference is suggested, in which will meet delegates from all parts of the State, whose object it will be to devise ways and means by which the good began work may be continued. This is a good suggestion. We favor all honorable and legitimate means of improvement and progression, and instinctively raise our voice against inactivity and sloth. The people take hold of this matter, hold mass meetings, appoint development committees, invite capital, and be instrumental in aiding the material development of our State.

JUDGE COLEMAN has issued a call for the election of a new board of funding commissioners in Muhlenberg county at the ensuing August election, but all three members of the board having resigned, the election on the subject of a compromise, truthfully says:

"The question of a compromise or not, will now be in the hands of the people, and upon their action will depend the fate of Muhlenberg county. In this matter has already been the county the opportunity of compromising at figure at least stated that the county committee would hope to compromise at this figure. The question of compromise is no longer there is not even the faintest shadow of a hope that the county committee would be so reasonable and fair as to settle upon a compromise and fair basis that at present? The bondholders are in a position some day to see the bondholders to compromise at its own interest and principle, and that the county committee in response to the call for a meeting Tuesday, the proposition of compromise was submitted. Only three members of the board were present, and nothing was done, as the people reasonably expect to get a compromise on the outstanding bonds of the county at figure less than ten cents on the dollar on interest and principal?"

We have only feelings of friendship and sympathy for the bondholders, and deplore as deeply as they, the sad state of affairs now existing in that county, but it does seem to us that a reasonable and fair compromise is the only solution to this harassing, long-talked of and much agitated question. The debt once compromised, the business interest of the county would assume a stable condition, confidence would inspire her people, her untold mineral wealth would soon be developed, and the undulating surface of old Muhlenberg would blossom as the rose.

The Interstate Commerce law is still a subject of great interest, and various are the opinions expressed concerning it. The commissioners in their trip South found the evidence of both railroads and shippers to be against the enforcement of the fourth section, but Senator Reagan, the author of the bill, sends the commission a long argument in favor of its enforcement. We are not sure the commission will be not yet known. Mr. Morrison, speaking of this clause, said:

"It is this long and short-hand clause of the bill is admitted, there is nothing in it the measure but the common law."

It has always been true that legislation against nature is bound to fail, and particularly competition, has worked injuriously to the masses of the people.

The ceremonies at the unveiling of the monument to the Confederate Dead at Hopkinsville last Thursday, were very impressive. Col. W. C. F. Beckwith, who was the master of the day, and well did he sustain his reputation in a magnificent oration.

replete in rhetorical imagery, full of noble patriotism, and hence eloquent by a glowing tribute to noble valor, as exemplified in the lives and actions of the boys in gray. The oration, by Dr. Deems, of New York, delivered a fitting and appropriate closing address. Hon. Jas. Breckinridge delivered the opening address, which bore marked characteristics of a patriotic and heroic sentiment, and did honor to himself. Communications were received from Jefferson Davis and many other men of prominence, sending regrets at not being able to attend. Beautiful floral designs were presented by New York and Evansville with expressions of fraternity and good will. It was a day long to be remembered by the thriving, prosperous little city of Hopkinsville.

The political fight in this county will soon be upon us in full blast, to say nothing of the interest of the candidates for State offices, and it behooves every believer in Democratic principles to be ever ready to lend a hand and help on the good work. We would suggest that the County Committee hold a meeting at an early date, effect a permanent organization and prepare to do good work for the party during the time that intervenes between now and the election.
